

CY 104 : Chemistry I for Health Sciences: Introduction to Chemistry (fall semester)

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 3

Credits 4

This is an algebra based course designed for majors in the health sciences or students with basic skills needs in general chemistry. The course content includes nomenclature, atomic and molecular structure, bonding, and reactions. This course is appropriate only as a review course for chemistry, other science or pre-professional majors.