

FA 213/ARHS 10003 : Fine Arts

ACTS Equivalent Course Number ARTA 1003

Lecture Hours 3

Credits 3

Fine Arts, FA 213/ARHS 10003 (ARTA 1003), will include instruction and observation of creative human expression concentrating on the Fine Arts. In order to develop a more informed understanding of fine arts of our past and present civilizations, the course will trace the history of visual art and its influences on civilization and contemporary society. This course is a survey of architecture, sculpture, and painting in Western culture, from the beginnings of time through ancient Greece, the Renaissance, the Baroque period, and the Modern period to the present.
